Market Commentary:

The market on calves going to grass or wheat was steady to $5 lower than last week's market.

Some fleshy new crop calves were $5-10.00 lower than calves that were weaned or thinner fleshed.

More interest in heifers narrowed the spread between steers and heifers.

Larger feeder calves were steady with yearling steers and heifers being $5-8.00 higher than calves of the same flesh.

Packer cows were steady. Bulls steady.

Good interest in bred cows. Very few pairs being offered.
